Dillman Rewarded Again

Nancy Dillman, wearing her lucky bracelet, a gold cuff with an image of Havre de Grace, was emotional but happy after the half-sister to the champion she bred sold for $1.7 million Thursday. "She was a lovely filly, and the biggest question was whether I wanted to sell her," said Dillman. "But yesterday, the sale really started picking up, and we started getting a lot of scopes. I was comfortable that she was going to go to a good home, and that was the most important thing. I don't have any children, so my foals are my children."

Dillman said there are similarities between this filly and her famous older sister, both physically and in temperament.

"She's not as big, but she has the same balance," Dillman explained. "Out in the field, when she was growing up, she had that same toughness. She was the leader of the pack. Not having very many mares, the colts and fillies run together [on my farm], and like 'Gracie,' she ruled the roost--the girls and the boys. I wish her new owners the best of luck, and if she's anything on the track like she is out in the field, she's gonna be tough."

Easter Bunnette has a Medaglia d'Oro weanling filly and is back in foal to the Darley sire. Yesterday's sale was Easter Bunnette's second seven-figure yearling. The mare's Bernardini colt, now named Brabbham, brought $1.2 million from John Ferguson at the 2011 Fasig-Tipton Saratoga sale.
